8:20 - 9:30 a.m. Healthcare Legislative Policy

Panelists will discuss the most topical state and federal legislative initiatives that could affect the healthcare sector and address the impact of the 2022 midterm elections on healthcare policy. How do these policies shape the outlook for the sector through 2023? Do we have a view into 2024?

Moderator: George Huang, Senior Healthcare Analyst

Panelists: Andy Bressler, CFA, Managing Director, Bank of America Securities, Global Research; Walter J. “Dub” Lane, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department Chair, Economics & Finance, University of New Orleans; Engy Ziedan, Assistant Professor, Tulane University

9:30 - 9:45 a.m. Break

9:45 - 10:45 a.m. Environmental, Social & Governance: Making an Impact

This panel will discuss how ESG has become increasingly topical in the not-for-profit healthcare sector as well as the importance of ESG to the success of a healthcare organization’s mission/strategy – while also understanding the buy-side approach to increasingly embedding ESG impacts into investment analysis. In addition to exploring impact, panelists will also discuss how they are combatting/evaluating increasingly concerning ESG risks (e.g., cybersecurity, employee satisfaction, climate).

Moderator: Zareh Baghdassarian, VP, Assured Guaranty

Panelists: Kari T. Gauster, Research Analyst, Lord Abbett; Joshua Goldstein, VP of Strategic Partnerships, UrbanFootprint

REGISTRATION

Registration for the seminar is $550 for members of the NFMA and its Constituent Societies, and $650 for nonmembers, which includes two continental breakfasts, one luncheon and the cocktail reception. A limited number of discounted registrations for government employees and students are available; inquiries should be directed to Lisa Good at 412-341-4898, or lgood@nfma.org. Registration is online only at www.nfma.org. The deadline for registration is January 25, 2023. Cancellations will be accepted through January 15; a $50 processing fee will be applied regardless of the reason for cancellation. Beginning January 16, there will be no refunds; however, substitutions from the same firm will be accepted. If weather conditions prevent attendance, proof of flight cancellations must be provided, and a partial (50%) credit will be given to be applied to registration for a future NFMA event. If a registrant is unable to attend due to COVID-19, a partial credit (50%) will be given to be applied to registration for a future event.

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

The NFMA's priority for all conferences is the safety and health of our attendees, speakers, guests and team members. In order to enable in-person events to take place with lower risk to participants, NFMA leadership has adopted the following Health & Safety Policies for in person events:

- The NFMA will be following local, state, and national guidance regarding masking and vaccinations. These mandates and rules may change, so please consult state, local and hotel websites for more information and updates.
- National, state, and local guidelines regarding methods to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 continue to evolve. The NFMA reserves the right to update its policies from time to time.

HOTEL

The site for the seminar is Le Meridien New Orleans, 333 Poydras Street, New Orleans, LA, 70130.
