- 9:15 - 10:15 a.m. Managing Today's Uncertainties at Public Housing Agencies & Not-for-Profit Housing Organizations
How are public housing agencies and not-for-profit real estate corporations navigating the current multitudes of uncertainties while meeting their missions to provide access to affordable housing for their constituents? This panel will discuss how PHAs and housing not-for-profits view and manage the risks of federal funding and policy uncertainties, potential interest rate volatility, and the inflationary pressures on construction costs. Each of the panelists will bring his perspective on how those uncertainties impact operations, credit and rating profiles, and access to the capital markets. Additionally, the panel will highlight the key credit strengths of this sector.
- Moderator: Megan Shum, Municipal Fixed Income Analyst, Allspring Global Investments
Panelists: Sam Adams, Managing Director, KeyBanc Capital Markets; Neal Drobenare, Senior Vice President, NHP Foundation; Scott Scharlach, Chief Operating Officer, Columbus Metropolitan Housing Authority
- 10:15 - 10:30 a.m. Break

10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Low Income Tax Credit Housing

This panel will explore the performance dynamics of tax credit projects and the role of loan securitizations in the housing finance ecosystem, including a discussion on investor appetite, market trends, and the rating environment. Participants with deep experience in underwriting, financing, and securitizing low-income housing tax credit transactions will draw from case studies and their own experience to discuss the issues.

Moderator: Hannah Blitzer, Managing Director, S&P Global Ratings

Panelists: Raymond High, Director, BofA Securities; Matt Tessyman, Director, Citi Community Capital; Mark Wright, Vice President, Portfolio Management, Arc70 Capital

11:30 a.m.

- 12:30 p.m.

Luncheon

1:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Distressed Workforce Housing Turnarounds

The panel will discuss the playbook from a legal standpoint for early vintage California workforce housing deals that are facing distress (i.e. tender/restructuring, bankruptcy, foreclosure/liquidation, etc.) and what can be added to future transactions to limit downside risk to bondholders.

Moderator: Amy Caton, Managing Partner, Head of Bankruptcy & Restructuring, US, Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer LLP

Panelists: Vander Shanholt, Vice President/Research Analyst, Franklin Templeton; Galen Wilson, Executive Director, JP Morgan

2:00 - 2:15 p.m.

Break

2:15 - 3:15 p.m.

Benefits & Challenges Facing Senior Rental Housing

Demand and municipal bond issuance for senior rental housing continues to increase, capturing more market share. With changing demographics, stagnant housing market in many regions of the country, as well as competition from home health care services, will the market for entrance fee based CCRC municipal bonds continue to decline? The panel will provide insights regarding the benefits and challenges of the senior rental market as well as how the market will address operational challenges resulting from increasing cost structures, liquidity requirements and changes in covenant demands from investors in the current environment.

Moderator: David Rodriguez, Managing Director, Senior Research Analyst, Saybrook Fund Advisors

Panelists: Yaffa Rattner, Senior Managing Director, Hilltop Securities; Poonam Patidar, Member, Mintz Levin; David Lawlor, President & CEO, The Long Hill Company

3:15 - 3:30 p.m. Break

3:30 - 4:30 p.m. Housing Bond Trading & Portfolio Management Considerations

This panel will be a loosely structured discussion focused on opportunities and risks in the housing sector of the municipal bond market and what buy side investors should be thinking about when constructing portfolios. Examples of topics that may be discussed include, but are not limited to, (il)liquidity considerations of various structures, how investors may approach low coupon bonds and/or distressed assets valued at low dollar prices, and how to factor in prepayment risk.

Moderator: Ozi Sander, Managing Director, Trading, Wells Fargo

Panelists: Geoffrey Schechter, Portfolio Manager, MFS; Other panelists TBA

4:30 - 5:30 p.m. Cocktail Reception

5:30 p.m. Free Evening

Friday, October 17

7:15 - 8:15 a.m. Continental Breakfast

8:00 - 9:00 a.m. Housing Finance Agencies: PACs, Origination Strategies, & Performance in a Changing Market

This panel brings together a leading HFA executive, financial advisor and banker to explore how the evolving economic and policy environment will impact HFA bond structures, loan portfolios and financial performance. Panelists will discuss how agencies are managing PACs structures and the strategic decisions behind them. They will also address the potential impact of federal policy shifts, including future of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, and how interest rate volatility is shaping HFA financial performance and origination activity. Attendees will gain insight into the evolving landscape for housing finance agencies and its implications for municipal investors.

Moderator: Rachael McDonald, Associate Managing Director Moody's Ratings

Panelists: Ansel Caine, Municipal Advisor, Caine Mitter; Aulii Taitano, Executive Director, Morgan Stanley; Michael Babcock, Assistant Director-Capital Markets, Illinois Housing Development Authority

9:00 - 10:00 a.m. Privatized Student Housing

Housing transactions require a vested interest from all partners at the table, but there are limits to what each participant can provide. This discussion will explore the risks that exist and protections that can be built in from the owner, developer and investor perspectives to navigate solutions across all stakeholders. Panelists will explore the value and impact of public ratings, market studies, structure, legal provisions and other nuances of these projects.

Moderator: Archie Chandrasekhar, Executive Vice President, Strategic Facility Partners

Panelists: Julie Skolnicki, Senior Managing Director of University Partnerships, Greystar; Jim Hennessy, Head of PPP Business Development & Co-Portfolio Manager, Harrison Street; Third panelist TBA
