

Rachel Barkley

Rachel Barkley is a Senior Vice President in Loop Capital Market's Public Finance Investment Banking Division, where she covers credit conditions, pension performance and financial developments in the state, local government, and revenue sectors for Loop. Prior to joining Loop, she was as a Senior Municipal Analyst at Morningstar, following stints at Fitch Ratings as a Public Finance Director, and at PFM.

She earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Bryn Mawr College and a master's degree in Government Administration from the Fels Institute of Government at the University of Pennsylvania.

She currently serves as Chair for the National Federation of Municipal Analysts and is a former board member for the Chicago Municipal Analysts Society.