

Nicole Byrd

Nicole Byrd is a Senior Investment Professional in the Municipal Credit Research team in the Investments department of Nationwide Mutual Insurance. In this role, she is instrumental to the research process for Nationwide Investments' $9 billion municipal bond portfolio. Nicole joined Nationwide in late 2013, bringing a strong background in the investments industry. Prior to Nationwide, she worked at Wilmington Trust in the state of Delaware where she managed the municipal research team. Prior to that role, she spent several years with Morgan Stanley Asset Management (New York, NY), MBIA (Armonk, NY), and Standard & Poor's (San Francisco, CA). Nicole is also actively involved in the NFMA. She currently serves as NFMA Vice Chair and co-chair of the Industry Practices Committee. Nicole co-authored the NFMA's State GO RBP and the Local GO RBP. Nicole earned her bachelor's degree in Business Economics from Mills College (Oakland, CA), where she graduated summa cum laude. Nicole actively volunteers her time to various organizations including Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America.
