

John Ceffalio

John Ceffalio is the Head of Municipal Client Portfolio Management on the Global Fixed Income Team at Northern Trust Asset Management. He joined Northern Trust in January 2023. He is part of the leadership team for Northern's municipal business and is responsible for client-facing communication.

John has worked in the municipal industry for nearly 20 years. He was an analyst at ratings agencies, and then for over 11 years at AllianceBernstein. He most recently led the municipal team at CreditSights, which provides independent credit market research.

John has a Master of Public Administration and prior to working in municipals, he was a senior aide to Governor Tony Knowles of Alaska. He is currently the Chair of the National Federation of Municipal Analysts.

John is a former Adjunct Associate Professor of Public Service at NYU's Robert F. Wagner School.