

NFMA Executive Director - Lisa Good

Lisa Good, Executive Director, has served in this role since 1991. She is a founding member of the NFMA, and served on its first four Boards of Governors, from 1983-1987. She served as secretary, vice chair, and annual conference chair during her tenure. She was a founding member of the Pittsburgh Municipal Analysts Society (since disbanded), for which she served as the first president.

Lisa was employed as a municipal credit analyst by PNC Bank in Asset & Liability Management and Investment Banking for nine years. She served as a budget analyst in the Department of Administration for Allegheny County, Pennsylvania prior to joining the bank's management training program. She is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Washington & Jefferson College, with a BA in Economics/English, and was the recipient of the Walter Hudson Baker Prize in Economics. Lisa also holds a Master of Science in Counseling Psychology from Chatham University. She is a current member of the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) and Mensa.