

Angela Kukoda

Angela Kukoda is Head of Municipal Credit and Research at Seix Investment Advisors in Winter Park, FL. She has expertise across a broad array of sectors, including state and local government, transportation, and utility. Before joining Seix, Angela was Head of Public Finance Credit and Research at Hilltop Securities Inc., where she developed credit strategies and provided structuring recommendations for municipal issuers throughout the U.S. She began her career at S&P Global Ratings, covering high-profile credits throughout the U.S., including state-level issuers.

Angela earned a Bachelor's degree in political science, magna cum laude, from New York University, a Master's degree in international economics from Columbia University, and is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. She has been an active member of both the National Federation of Municipal Analysts and the Southern Municipal Finance Society through much of her career. She is the current Chair of the NFMA and is a former Chair of the SMFS.