

Scott Andreson

Scott Andreson is a Director of Fixed Income & Senior Municipal Bond Investor at American Family Insurance in Madison, Wisconsin where he manages, trades, and analyzes over $5 billion of exempt and taxable municipal securities. Former positions include Director of Municipal Research at Seix Investment Advisors, Senior Vice President & Head of Municipal Bond Research for The Hartford's Investment Management Company, First Vice President at Ambac, Senior Securities Analyst for RiverSource Investments at Ameriprise Financial, and Director in Fitch Ratings' Global Power Group, based in Fitch's San Francisco's office.

Scott has more than 20 years of fixed income credit and investment experience and has published and spoken on industry and investments relevant to municipal securities. He earned a Bachelor of Science from North Dakota State University and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Southern California. He is the current Chair of the National Federation of Municipal Analysts.