

Why You Should Become a Member of the National Federation of Municipal Analysts....

To make a difference in the municipal bond industry

To further your education and skills

To develop a life-long career network

To get involved on a local level via NFMA constituent societies

TO HAVE FUN!

Make a difference

NFMA has a strong industry reputation for its Recommended Best Practices in Disclosure and White Papers. Volunteer to work on one of these projects in a wide range of sectors and key topics.

Further your education

Stay up-to-date on the latest developments in municipal bond credit analysis by attending NFMA introductory and advanced seminars, the NFMA annual conference, and constituent society seminars and events.

Develop your industry network

Get to know the nearly 1300 municipal bond professionals in the organization and its constituent societies. Take advantage of the NFMA website which includes job postings, a searchable membership directory, and a meeting handouts page.

Get involved

By becoming a member of the NFMA, you can be a part of the premier group of professionals in the U.S. whose focus is municipal bond credit analysis. If you are near one of the constituent societies, you have further opportunities to get involved and build your industry involvement locally.

Have fun

Most NFMA events include networking time. Educational events are located around the country in order to be accessible to members, and often include organized tours of local municipal projects of topical interest.

To join now, go to www.nfma.org. Membership is free for eligible students and faculty.

About membership in the NFMA

Membership Categories:

Regular Membership in the NFMA gives you the opportunity to join as a member of a constituent society or as an Affiliated Individual if you are not in proximity to a society.
